

LE CERCLE TURGOT

Paris, September 26, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

Augustin de ROMANET, new President of the Cercle Turgot

Appointed by a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors on September 19, 2023, Augustin de ROMANET will succeed to Jean-Louis CHAMBON, President and Founder of the Cercle Turgot.

The new President paid tribute to the Cercle's rich history, congratulating "its dynamic activities, the quality of its contribution to economic reflection through its conference-debates, its publications and other missions such as its support of the Turgot Prize for which the 37th edition will be held at the Finance Ministry in March 2024".

About Augustin de ROMANET:

A Former Director General of the state-operated "Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations" and previously Deputy Secretary General of the President of the French Republic, Augustin de ROMANET also held senior positions in various ministerial Cabinets. He is the Chairman and CEO of the ADP Group since 2012 and serves as Chairman of Paris Europlace since 2018.

About the Cercle Turgot:

The Cercle Turgot is a think-tank for financial analysis and reflection on major economic and social issues. Its dual mission consists in fostering fundamental and applied research in these fields, as well as contributing to financial and economic teachings and promoting "young talent", such as economists, authors and researchers.

The Cercle Turgot supports each year the Prix Turgot for the best book on financial economics, presided by Kathleen WANTZ-O'ROURKE and awarded by a Jury chaired by Jean-Claude TRICHET, President of the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences and former President of the European Central Bank

The Cercle Turgot also publishes collective works on major financial and economic issues.
